For more information on Learning to Look: Using the Museum as a Teacher Resource

Please contact:

Meg Elliott
Coordinator of Community and Adult Programs
Johnson Museum of Art
Cornell University
Ithaca, NY 14853-4001

Mme3@cornell.edu
(607) 254-4616

Handouts:
Museum Learning: More than Meets the Eye Summary by Ted Lind of an essay by T. Kaori Kitao discussing the skills developed by object based learning.

Assessment Rubrics: Learning with a Museum Object

Assessment Rubric: Learning from Museum Exhibitions

Looking at Art A list of general points to consider when viewing artwork.

“Teaching Yourself to Teach with Objects” an article by John Henningar Shuh from Journal of Education Vol 7, No. 4.

The Art of Looking: Unlocking the Mysteries of Objects and Images Brochure from the Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art

For more information on school programs please contact
Carol Hockett
Coordinator of School and Family Programs
Johnson Museum of Art
Cornell University
Ithaca, NY 14853-4001

Cih2@cornell.edu
(607) 254-4654

or visit our website at www.museum.cornell.edu